Chapter 1 by Arley Arley

As I woke up, there was a split second that I was happy. Then, all the memories from yesterday came rushing back to me. What a terrible day. My 19th birthday and a very bad one.

Chapter 2 by lightningstrikesannah (I'm back!)

I had been with my family, at the park, when a man with a gun forced me and my mother to give him our purses.

He didn't seem satisfied with what we had, so he took a bullet, loaded it, and before we could do anything, he shot my mother.

Chapter 3 by Olive

I wondered if I could find the guy. But why would I do that. With my Dad gone and me living all by myself, this guy could easily track me down and kill me. I have to get away. My whole life is in danger.

There was a knock on the door and I dove onto the couch with a sharp pain in my side. If this was the guy, he would break through the door anytime now. After three rings of the doorbell the person went away. I felt a wave of relief.
